

GENERAL RULES

1. Dancers must have a Weekend Pass to compete in any division.
2. "Swing" includes Push, Whip, West and East Coast Swing, Lindy, Carolina Shag, Jitterbug, Jamaica, Bop, and D.C. Hand Dancing. "Hustle" includes all forms of Hustle – including Three Count Hustle, New York Hustle, Latin Hustle, and Four Count Hustle
3. Jack & Jill, Strictly Swing and Just Hustle will focus on West Coast Swing, and Hustle dances.
4. All divisions are for male leaders and female followers (exceptions may apply in the Pro-Am Divisions, or if there is a shortage of leaders in the Strictly Swing division)
5. Dancers may compete in all dance divisions they qualify for; including Jack & Jill, Strictly Swing, Pro-am Swing, Pro-Am Hustle, Classic and Showcase, and Master's Divisions. Dancers may enter only one level of each division. Dancers may enter each division only once per contest. Dancers must compete with a different partner in each division they enter.
6. Dancers must be at least 50 years of age by the end of the event to dance in the Master's Division.
7. Penalties for infractions will be determined by the chief judge. Penalties may be reduction in placement up to and including disqualification. No refunds will be given to competitors after their performance.
8. We may cancel any division for which fewer than three entries are received. Contestants will receive a refund of their competitor fee for that division.
9. Eligibility
Competitors should choose levels appropriate to their skill and dance styles. We reserve the right to move competitors to more appropriate levels or to reject entries inappropriate for any of our divisions. For questions prior to the event, e-mail the Event Director, Glen Miller at miller3220@aol.com.
10. Clothing and behavior
 - Clothing: NO JEANS DURING COMPETITION – unless it is a specific costume for a choreographed routine.
 - Competitors should conduct themselves maturely and display sportsmanship. Contestants displaying poor behavior may be disqualified from competition with no refund, or ejected from the event.

COMPETITIVE DIVISIONS

Strictly Swing Division And Strictly Hustle (Just Hustle) Divisions

- Levels larger than 18 entries may be danced in a preliminary round. The chief judge will determine the dance format in each round (all-skate, heat, or spotlight). The chief judge will determine the number of call-backs to finals, if a preliminary round is run.
- Couples must demonstrate a minimum of 90 percent swing content in the Strictly Swing Divisions, and 90% Hustle content in the Hustle Divisions.

- Costumes are not allowed, but matching dress/clothing are encouraged.

Jack & Jill Division

- There are no limits to the number of entries. Levels that are unmatched in gender will be danced in a preliminary round to create a balanced final. Levels larger than 20 entries may be danced in a preliminary round. In the preliminary round(s), competitors will be judged individually by gender.
- All leaders will be male and all followers will be female
- Competitors will dance West Coast Swing/Push/Whip for the Swing Divisions, and competitors will dance Hustle for the Hustle Divisions.
- The chief judge will determine the number of leaders and followers to be called back for the final round in each level, where they will draw for partners and be judged as a couple.
- The chief judge will determine the dance format in each round (all-skate, heat, or spotlight).
- Couples must demonstrate a minimum of 90 percent swing content in Jack & Jill.
- No lifts or aerials. Partner-supported drops are allowed (safely executed) in Champions Divisions only.
- Costumes are not allowed.

Jack & Jill Level Eligibility Guidelines

These Guidelines are meant to help you decide which Jack & Jill level is most appropriate for you. The Guidelines are based on the World Swing Dance Council's ("WSDC") point system and the recommendations on its website.

Novice

Generally, this level will be appropriate for you if:

1. You are proficient in the basics of West Coast Swing/Push/Whip dancing, and
2. You do not normally compete in Intermediate or higher level Jack & Jill divisions at events reporting points in the WSDC registry, and you have not earned Intermediate or higher level WSDC points.

Generally, you may compete in this Novice division until you have both won a WSDC Novice Jack & Jill division and earned 20 or more WSDC Novice points at events reporting points in the WSDC registry.

Intermediate

Generally, this level will be appropriate for you if:

1. You have earned 20 or more Novice WSDC points including a win in Novice, and are ready to compete at this level or you have earned Intermediate level WSDC points and typically compete at the Intermediate Jack & Jill level at events reporting points in the WSDC registry, and
2. You do not typically compete in Advanced or higher level Jack & Jill levels at events reporting points in the WSDC registry and have not earned Advanced or higher level WSDC points.

Generally, you may compete in this Intermediate level until you have both won an Intermediate Jack & Jill division at an event reporting points in the WSDC registry and earned 40 Intermediate level WSDC points.

Advanced

Generally, this level will be appropriate for you if you typically compete in Advanced or higher level Jack & Jill divisions at events reporting points in the WSDC registry, and you have earned Advanced or higher level WSDC points. You may compete in this level if you have accumulated 20 or more Intermediate level WSDC points and are ready to compete at this level.
